

16 MAY 1975

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Security

SUBJECT : Office of Security Monthly Report of Trends and Highlights for April 1975

1. Field Office support and coordination assisted the movement of two and one-half tons of Saigon Station records from Saigon to Headquarters; also, field office assistance to two courier trips facilitated the transfer of 375 pounds of Top Secret material from Headquarters to Saigon.

2. A representative of the Physical Security Division, in addressing problems created by a persistent crank, met with the Assistant U. S. Attorney in Philadelphia, who arranged for the incarceration of the crank for a 90-day period of psychiatric observation.

3. The Acting Deputy Director of Central Intelligence granted a waiver to the DCID 1/16 requirement that all remote computer terminal users be approved for all types of sensitive compartmented information within the Office of Joint Computer Support (OJCS) computer system. The waiver stipulated, however, that all users of these systems have Agency Top Secret clearances and approval for Special Intelligence.

25X1A 4. Due to a program modification incorporated into the [REDACTED] system, the Security Records Division has realized a significant reduction in manual efforts necessary to maintain this system.

5. Freedom of Information Act requests continued to increase during the month of April. A caseload of 364 on 30 April represents an increase of 140 cases over the previous reporting period ending 31 March.

At our conference we spoke of measurements of the quantity of work performed. Attached is a monthly report submitted to me which indicates a number of the measurements used by the Office of Security in judging its production.

I think you may find this informative.
